

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

THURSDAY

Miss Maggie Henniger of Brightside has gone to Vernon for a visit of several days.

Charles Walker left this morning for a trip that will take him to Batavia, Illinois.

Rudolph Keller left this morning for Indiana Harbor, where he has relatives whom he will visit.

Philip Sickman, Simon Mattock and Aaron Aster of Culver are transacting business here today.

Ruth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Soice, living in the west part of the city, is quite ill with croup.

Mrs. Marion Stoneburner, Mrs. Henry Jarrell, A. W. Sarber and daughter, Mrs. Chase of Tyner are in the city today.

Mrs. Jennie McFarland of Argos is here today on business, her sister, Mrs. Chas. M. Hudson of Mentone being with her.

Miss Ruth Chadwick of the Mrs. Work Training school, left for Louisville this morning on business connected with the institution.

In cases of rheumatism relief from pain makes sleep and rest possible. This may be obtained by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by All Dealers.

Rev. J. C. Smith was called here from his home in Fulton, Michigan, to preach at the funeral of Mrs. Nifong this afternoon, at the Jacoby church east of the city.

Lame shoulder is nearly always due to rheumatism of the muscles, and quickly yields to the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by All Dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. Mede Logan of Niles, Michigan, are in the city. Mede still owns his farm south of town, and has to come occasionally to see after business. His eyes are not good, but he can see to get about quite well. He is in the laundry business with his son Ward.

Mrs. James Price, widow of a man whom many people of Plymouth will remember as "Doc" Price, passed through the city today going to Walkerton to visit her grand daughter for some time. The family lived in Plymouth for many years, their last home here being on north Walnut street.

"Our baby cries for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. T. B. Kendrick, Resaca, Ga. "It is the best cough remedy on the market for coughs, colds and croup." For sale by all dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nash, mention of whom was made in this paper as stopping a few days in Plymouth to visit his sisters, Mesdames A. C. and R. A. Hume, as they were journeying home to Ohio, after spending the winter in California, have gone to their home near New Baltimore, Ohio.

L. M. Goode of Indianapolis, came in to Plymouth this morning from a trip east, going towards his home. He reports his wife, who was formerly a resident of this city, Miss Lulu Dickson, as well as the rest of the family, including Mrs. Goode's mother, Aunt Lettie Dickson, whose old Plymouth home was the house on south Michigan street now occupied by Hiram Shaffer.

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by All Dealers.

Since the departure of Rev. Smith from the Reformed church circuit, they have had no regular minister. Rev. A. S. Kresge, who was here from Ohio last Sunday, met the approval of the officers of the local church in Plymouth. The question of calling him is up to the congregation for approval. The Twin Lakes church and the Jacoby church are likewise on this circuit, and each will act on the matter as quickly as possible.

Wednesday was the day set for Mrs. George H. Thayer to be taken from the hospital to her home on south Michigan street. Owing to the cold, rainy, chilly, snowy and decidedly disagreeable weather that has prevailed since then, it was deemed best to remain where it was comfortable rather than risk exposure by going out doors. The friends of Mrs. Thayer, both in Plymouth and elsewhere will be pleased to know she is getting along so well, and hope that there will be nothing to prevent her full recovery.

Clem Jennings who was in Plymouth last night for the inspection of Plymouth Chapter R. A. Masons by the Grand Chapter, called on his old time friend, Daniel McDonald, yesterday for a visit. Mr. McDonald cannot get out to attend these meetings as he formerly did, but he enjoys having his friends call on him at his home, and recount the good times they have had together in days that are gone, and bring up to the mind's view those with whom they were associated who have laid down the armor and now rest from the struggles of this life.

FRIDAY

Charley Vangilder now of Chesterton, was in the city on business yesterday for a few hours.

Uncle Nelson McLaughlin went to South Bend today for a visit with the family of his son Charles.

D. P. Rymer of Delphos, Ohio, who has been visiting his cousin, A. E. Rhodes, has returned home.

Harry Harris was home Thursday from Bourbon, where he is placing cables under the streets, for cluster lights.

Miss S. E. Bowers who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Catherine Garrett for some days, has returned to her home in Columbia City.

Southworth & Son are putting up a monument in a cemetery in South Bend, and both Brad and Frank are there today putting in the foundation.

Mrs. J. T. Brown of Hamlet, who came down to hear her son Carl, in Pinafore, returned home this morning. Naturally she is proud of her talented son. Who can blame her.

Mrs. C. E. Croup is here from Detroit, Mich., for a visit of about a week. She came Sunday. Mrs. Croup says the weather in Detroit is warmer than in Marshall county.

Mrs. A. C. Capron and her mother, Mrs. Dill, who have been spending the winter in Ft. Wayne, have gone to Maxinkuckee Lake, where they will open their cottage.

Miss E. Foster, of the State Board of Charities, spent the night at the Brightside Children's home, and left this morning with three girls she is placing in homes in northern Indiana.

S. C. Irvine, civil engineer for the Pennsylvania railroad, stopped off this morning to consult with City Civil Engineer, W. H. English, regarding the South street proposed paving matter.

Mrs. Frank Pulver living just west of the city, accompanied by her daughter, left this morning for Paw Paw, Illinois, where she will meet her parents who are returning from spending the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. S. Kitch and daughter Vivian, left this morning for Bremen, to attend the funeral of Miss Rose May, mention of whose death was made in our issue of Thursday, she being a cousin of Mr. Kitch.

Prof. H. W. Owens returned to his home in Chicago this morning. He has had a hard week of work, caused partly by the extra trip he made here to drill the Mozart club on Tuesday night, and is tired out, but pleased beyond measure at the success of the opera last evening.

Everett, the 14-year old son of B. D. Krouse, was operated upon in Epworth hospital, South Bend, Sunday evening, for a mastoid abscess. He will be obliged to undergo another operation the latter part of this week for appendicitis.—Culver Citizen.

M. J. Flanders of Manlius, N. Y., is shipping in the city a few days the guest of J. W. Wilfong and C. Firestone. Mr. Flanders is an uncle of L. R. Bell who was at one time one of our teachers in the public school. He is fascinated with the cleanliness and beauty of the city of Plymouth.

Kimmel's teamster is the champion lumber unloader of the country. He had on a nice big load of long boards this morning. You see he did not lengthen the reach of his wagon enough, nor did he slip a chain around the front end. A little start, and away went the lumber to the Plumb street pavement. Nice quick job of unloading, hard to beat.

Jim Sherwood came down on the Vandalia train from the north this morning. He looks as natural as in the days of the old county fair, when he used to hold the reins over the back of his trotter, and endeavor to come down the homestretch ahead of Dr. Reynolds, and the other old drivers. His handshake is just as hearty as it was then.

Jesse Hamlet, a conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad, living in Ft. Wayne, was in the city today, going out to visit his brother William on the farm three miles west of the city. His two daughters are there enjoying the country air of early spring, and hardly appear ready to go back home. Mr. Hamlet reports his sister, Miss Mattie, as quite well, and living with him in Ft. Wayne.

Mrs. Chas. R. Leonard went to Englewood this afternoon. Her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Gear, worked every way to get her mother there, but failed till she finally hit the right time. Her husband is on a trip to Florida, where he will be away for two weeks, and so Ruth phoned to her mother to come and stay with her and the baby a few days, as she really needed her company.

A new house is going up on south Walnut street, and another near by is contemplated. Austin Holland has commenced the work of building on the north part of the old John Langenbaugh lot, corner of Walnut and Pierce, utilizing the frame of the old barn, and when completed will have a very neat and tidy-looking place. Directly north across the alley, on the south part of the old Mike Downey lot, Mrs. Palaski Wickizer will erect a new house soon. Good improvements, both of them.

SATURDAY

Repairing by machinery at Shatford's. No. 1

County Commissioner James Severns was in Plymouth today.

Mr. and Mrs. Dilmer Motz are visiting a few days in South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Freyman of Charles street, are spending a few days in Chicago.

J. C. Barnhisel who has been visiting friends here, has now returned to his home in Chicago.

Mrs. Anna Moslander left this morning for a visit of a few days with her mother in South Bend.

Mrs. C. Thompson of Rochester, returned to her home Friday, after visiting with Mrs. W. H. Lawrence.

Miss Maud Maxey is on a visit that includes Argos, Burr Oak and Knox, where she has relatives and friends.

Samuel Burns and family have moved to the farm he recently purchased two miles south of town, and known as the Wrightly farm. He came from Bartholomew county.

Mrs. Laura Nifong and Miss Ida Wolforth have gone to Culver to visit over Sunday with Mrs. Oden Mitchell.

Miss Bertha Martin of Bremen passed through Plymouth Friday on her way to Peru, where she will visit her sister.

Mrs. N. J. Davis, living just west of the city, left this morning for Chicago, where she will visit with her daughters a few days.

Mrs. Grace North of near Hibbard was a Plymouth visitor today. She says she enjoys the farm life very much, and feels just fine all the time.

Perry Sprague, an engineer on the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern railroad, with headquarters at Joliet, Illinois, has returned home after visiting his relatives in Polk township.

Mrs. George Pifer of Warsaw is here to spend the day with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Campbell. She is accompanied by Mrs. Basil Williams of Chicago, who will visit friends here.

Mrs. John Souders of Culver has purchased the residence occupied by the Misses Jeanette and Frances Emerson on north Center street, opposite the court house. She expects to move to Plymouth soon and make her home here.

Alpha Wiekey was in Ft. Wayne taking the examination for lampman at this station of the Pennsylvania. A defect in his eyesight cuts him out of the race for the position as this is one of the particular features of the place.

A. B. Farnwald returned this morning from a trip to Nappanee. He has relatives there whom he visits, and on this trip he has contracted with a party to go to Williams county, Illinois, in the interest of the Menominee Co.

Mrs. John Wolforth, who has been connected with the Old People's Home at Hartland, Ill., for the past year as matron, has decided to remain in Plymouth the coming year. Her many friends hope she will remain and take up her work as a nurse here.

The Simons brick barn that stands between Walnut and Plumb streets on Madison, has been remodelled by the owner, Joseph Holzbauer, and is divided into two dwellings. N. E. Cook who is to have the new elevator occupies one side, and the other is occupied by Lester Zumbaugh.

Our old townsman Robert Head, now living in Argos, and travelling for the Swift Co., was in the city last night, and visited with his mother, Mrs. Samuel Pressley, of east Sophia street. Bob says his wife has not been very well this winter, but is improving now. He likes his work quite well, but it takes him away from home much of the time.

Miss Rose Matthew who was a member of the Mozart club while here, came down to hear Pinafore, and was supposed to return home Friday morning, but was induced to remain until this morning. Several of her special friends were at the station to see her off on the 9:07 train, and did not seem sorry when it was marked up 15 minutes late, and she was held in Plymouth that much longer.

ATTENTION!

FARMERS.

Don't lump away your old iron for half the weight, when you can get every pound that's coming to you. Don't sell to road agents; they are not out for their health. Make the profit yourself by doing your own hauling. Don't believe it when a road agent tells you that he is buying for me in order to get your goods. I have no agents.

Don't load down a poor old worn out horse, driven by a heartless human brute, who cares no more for his horse than he would for a snake. Be merciful, farmers.

I buy everything in the line of old junk. Old Rubber, Old Paper, Rags, Bones, Copper, Zinc, Old Iron.

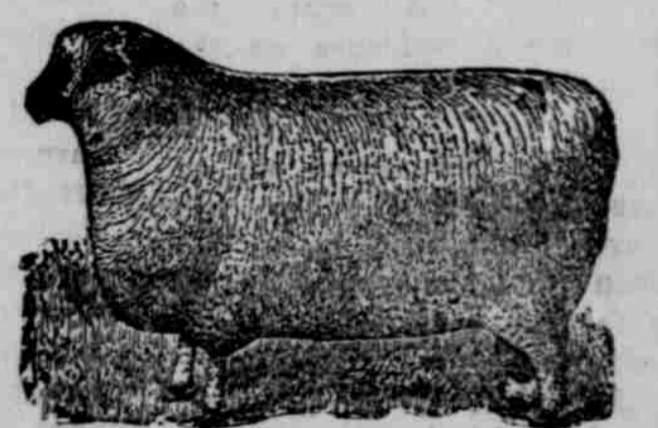

When coming to Plymouth, load up what junk you have around your place and bring it in with you. I buy all kinds of HIDES:—Beef hides, Horse hides, Sheep pelts and Tallow.
